

chuandongbei by the numbers building on our legacy

30+

years of Chevron providing energy to China safely and reliably

3 trillion

cubic feet of potentially recoverable natural gas resources square kilometer area in Sichuan Province and Chongqing Municipality in southwest China demonstrating safety and collaboration one of the largest onshore gas projects between an international and national oil company in China

800+

17 million

man hours without a Day Away From Work Case as of December 31, 2015 delivering reliable and affordable clean energy

94.2 billion

cubic feet per year in design outlet capacity in the first stage city the size of Hong Kong can be supplied for nearly a year contributing to the economy and community

120,000+

people benefited from community projects in the past 8 years

$220 million

and more paid in taxes to local governments from 2008 to 2014